

PART III APPLICATION FOR FEE RELIEF FROM COURSE FEES

The Actuaries Institute offers financial relief from Part III subjects for its student members, providing they meet the three criteria listed below. Students pay 50% of the scheduled course fee for any Part III subject. Students must pay the full price for any other associated material (postage, books, accommodation etc). From 2006 onwards students can only obtain fee relief for the same Part III subject a maximum of two times (including subjects from which they later withdraw from). Fee relief for C7A ERM will only be accepted for the workshop. Fee relief will not be accepted for the ST9 ERM, ST1 Health and Care and F101 Health Fellowship Principles examinations. Fee relief application form must be submitted within the Part III enrolment period.
